NOTE FOR THE DCI

SUBJECT: Afternoon Developments

USSR

TASS warned that the Soviet Union would take measures against US correspondents in Moscow if Soviet reporters in Washington were denied free access to Senate hearings. (Reuter)

Iraq/Iran

Iranian troops reportedly have entered the city of Khorramshahr. There are also indications that the Iranians may be planning to carry the offensive into Iraq with a thrust at Al Basrah. [REDACTED]

A press report says that an Iraqi gunboat was sunk south of Khorramshahr. (Dow Jones)

Greece

The Communist Party has called for demonstrations in Athens on Sunday to protest Secretary Haig's visit and US policies. (FBIS [REDACTED])

Guatemala

Guatemalan President Montt has signed an order directing the Army to prepare for partial mobilization effective 20 May. Thirty combat infantry companies will be created and assigned to areas where leftist guerrillas are active. [REDACTED]
